KANSAS CITY, Mo. - Nineteen teams retained their previous ranking, including No. 1 Southern Oregon, in the eighth edition of the NAIA Men's Cross Country Coaches' Top 25 Poll, the national office announced Wednesday. The Raiders spend their fifth week on top of the poll after earning 18 first-place votes for 618 points. For the third-consecutive week, No. 2 Shawnee State (Ohio) and No. 3 Wayland Baptist (Texas) also picked up first-place nods, with the Bears tallying one and the Pioneers snagging three. Rounding out the top five is fourth-ranked Malone (Ohio) and fifth-ranked Bryan (Tenn.).

Fourteen conferences and independents were recognized in the Top 25, with seven boasting multiple teams in the poll. The Cascade Collegiate Conference leads the charge with four listed teams: Southern Oregon, No. 11 College of Idaho, No. 16 Eastern Oregon and No. 24 Concordia (Ore.).

Boasting a trio of Top-25 teams are the Golden State Athletic Conference and Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference, while four other leagues landed two programs on the poll.

The eighth edition of the Top 25 marked the first time this season that the entire poll held over all previously-ranked teams.

Among the 19 teams that did not move in the poll are the top-11 listed programs. Teams ranked Nos. 16 – 22 also maintained last week's ranking. The Master's (Calif.) two-spot hop from No. 15 to 13 was the biggest jump. Graceland (Iowa) and Great Falls (Mont.) each received one-spot boost, checking in at 12th and 23rd, respectively. Oklahoma Christian slid down three to No. 15, while No. 14 Lewis-Clark State (Idaho) and No. 24 Concordia shifted back one.

The poll was voted upon by a panel of head coaches representing each of the conferences, independents and unaffiliated groups. The final poll of the 2010 season will be released on Nov. 7 by 7 p.m. CST.

Team and individual qualifiers for the 2010 NAIA Men's Cross Country National Championships will be announced Nov. 8 by 5 p.m. CST. The 55th annual event will take place at the Fort Vancouver National Historic Site in Vancouver, Wash., on Nov. 20.
